Tudor History Holidays in Southern England

The Ship Hall, containing Henry VIII's flagship, the Mary Rose, is closing for reconstruction on 18 September for three years. Tudor History Tours has compiled an escorted day tour to Portsmouth to give you the last opportunity to see the Mary Rose and experience the life and times of Tudor England in Portsmouth.

The tour includes:

- ◆ Return coach travel to Portsmouth
- ◆ Special timed entry with guide to the Spinnaker Tower for a panoramic view and explanation of the sinking of the Mary Rose
- ◆ Entry into the Historic Dockyard and all the attractions
- ◆ Special timed entry to HMS Victory
- ◆ Opportunity for retail therapy at Gunwharf Quays designer outlets for the non-nautically minded!
- ◆ A superb evening at the award winning Mary Rose Museum with a private guided tour where you get to handle some of the actual artifacts from the Mary Rose.
- ◆ Tudor Banquet served by wenches in costume, with a glass of spiced wine beforehand and a goblet of mead with the meal.

A never to be repeated day at only £95pp

(Children under 12 with child's menu £75pp)

The Last Chance to see Henry VIII's Flagship the Mary Rose until 2012!

Lunch is not included. Extra wine and soft drinks for the banquet can be purchased.

Coach leaves Eastbourne at 8.00am
Return approximately 11.30pm

(Minimum numbers required. Terms and conditions apply)

Please return this portion to Tudor History Tours, Unit E, Enterprise Shopping Centre, Station Parade, Eastbourne East Sussex, BN21 1BD

Please reserve adult places and children's places for the Flagship Tour on Saturday 5 September 2009 at £95pp/£75pc. I enclose a cheque for £..... payable to Tudor History Tours.
